Selection Procedure

The Board has decided to select the candidates for the direct recruitment of Graduate Assistants for the notified vacancies from the 2012, 2013 & 2014-TNTET qualified candidates after verifying their eligibility. Therefore, there is no need to apply separately for this recruitment. Only those candidates who were previously selected by the board for B.T Assistant post but did not join the service and who wish for their candidature to be considered now for this recruitment may download the application form from the TRB website and submit the same to TRB in person on or before 10.05.2017. Applications received after this date will not be considered at any cost.

To begin with, TRB will prepare the list of candidates to be called for CV on a 1:1 ratio basis, for the vacancies notified herein, based on the details uploaded by the candidates through the online updation process as well as the available C.V data with TRB and by incorporating the list of previously selected candidates who did not join the service and who have now submitted application for consideration till 10.05.2017, duly following communal rotation and other relevant rules in vogue.

I. Certificate Verification:

The Board has already given an opportunity vide notice dated: 07.03.2017 to all those candidates who secured the minimum qualifying marks in previous TNTET Examinations to verify their details available with the TRB. However, evidences for the claims made by the candidates in the online entry should be submitted by the candidates at the time of certificate verification. CV is done only to verify the eligibility of the claims made by the candidates in the online updation / available CV data with TRB. It is made clear that inviting a candidate to Certificate Verification is meant only for the express purpose of confirming the eligibility of the candidate and ensuring the correctness of the previous CV data available with the TRB/updation made by the candidate through the online process. Only after the confirmation of the claims made by the candidate, the board will start the actual selection process.

II. Preparation of Provisional Merit List:

After certificate verification, a merit list will be prepared from the eligible candidates based on the current certificate verification details by awarding weightage marks as per G.O Ms No. 71, SE(TRB), Dated: 30.05.2014.

III. Preparation of Provisional Selection List:

Provisional Selection list for the notified vacancies will be prepared from the above said merit list duly following communal rotation and other relevant rules in vogue.
